

Relocate EA Asset Warehouse from Onne to IA Ogunu by Mar 2020

Background/Business Case			Potential Benefits & Measurement
All EA Asset spares, stock items and routine operational materials are currently warehoused in Onne warehouse. Onne also serves the offshore logistics supply base, delivery point for procurement items and offshore equipment mobilisation point as well as offshore despatch base for provisions and routine supplies to the Sea Eagle FPSO. With the recent merger with the Swamp West Hub, there exist an opportunity to optimise the current EA warehouse practice by relocation of these items and service points to Shell IA Ogunu warehouse and the use of IA Ogunu as the offshore logistics base for the Sea Eagle FPSO.			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Potential savings of circa USD 1.5M annually from rental space &amp; warehousing services.</li> <li>Significant reduction in logistics/ Supply vessel costs (Contingent upon successful implementation of the Marine support improvement initiative).</li> <li>Significant reduction in foot print with an opportunity to write-off unwanted/abandoned spares. Estimated cost recovery is 2.1mln USD</li> <li>Opportunity to implement a more efficient &amp; effective material handling process exist.</li> <li>Opportunity to conduct a stock audit in parallel to move exist.</li> </ul>
